

California Coastal National Monument Ambassador Training Program

Become a volunteer ambassador for the Trinidad Gateway to the California Coastal National Monument.

Training starts April 8, 2020

Volunteer Ambassadors help the public understand and appreciate the natural resources and significance of the California Coastal National Monument by assisting with outreach events, tabling opportunities, interpretive walks and school education programs.

A series of 7 weekend and evening training sessions covering topics including intertidal ecology, botany, geology, seabirds, local history, and land conservation are scheduled through May 2 culminating with a kayak tour for graduates on May 9.

Space is limited and pre-registration is required. For more information and a detailed training schedule email carol@trinidadcoastallandtrust.org or call 677-2501
